

The Arab Institute for Women

Internship Application

The Arab Institute for Women (AiW) at the Lebanese American University (LAU) was established in 1973 to pay tribute to LAU's origins as a girls' school and to fulfil its commitment to education, empowerment, and equality for women and girls. Advancing gender equality and empowering women is at the heart of AiW's mission. By engaging in a unique combination of education, research, development programs, and outreach with a focus on issues affecting Arab women, AiW represents a vital resource at the national, regional, and international levels, and a leading institution at the forefront of the advancement of women and the promotion of gender equality in the Arab region.
